

CMM Publication Ethics and Malpractice Statement

1. Editorial Board

- On the Cathay's Road /Sulla Via del Catai Editorial board and Scientific committee are composed by renown academics, scholars and sinologists, whose names and affiliations are provided on the journal's Web site.
- The same web page displays the editorial office contact information.

2. Authors and Authors responsibilities

- No fees or charges are required by the CMM for manuscript processing and/or publishing materials
- A publishing agreement regulating the relationship between author and publisher and stating the reciprocal obligations and rights is to be signed before the publication.
- Authors are asked to participate in peer review process.
- All authors declare to have significantly contributed to the research.
- All authors undertake to make the requested retractions or corrections of mistakes by the deadline set by the editors, in case of not fulfilment the article will be rejected.

3. Peer-review process

- The whole journal's content is subject to peer-review by qualified expert in the related field.
- The peer-review process is detailed on the journal's website.
- Reviewers are committed to:
 - have no conflict of interest and provide objective judgments.
 - remark relevant published works not yet cited.
 - treat the articles confidentially.

4. Publication ethics

- Publishers and editors are committed to undertake all the reasonable steps to prevent the publication of papers in case research misconduct has been ascertained.
- In no case the CMM or its editors shall encourage or consciously consent any misconduct to take place, and will deal with claims appropriately.
- The journal rules the steps and deadlines for retracting or correcting articles when requested.
- Publishers and editors agree to publish corrections, clarifications, retractions and apologies when needed.

5. Copyright and Access

- Copyright and licensing information are provided on the journal's Web site.
- The journal is partially available to readers on line. Annual subscription is foreseen for paper copies, which may be also purchased on line or in bookshops, while single articles are freely available upon request to the publisher.

6. Archiving

- The journal's electronic backup is regularly updated and also available on a specific cloud.